So the previous question on the resolution was ordered.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. COMBEST, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MOAKLEY demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the affirmative	{	Yeas	228

So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶73.14 BUDGET RECONCILIATION

Mr. KASICH, pursuant to House Resolution 174, called up the bill (H.R. 2015) to provide for reconciliation pursuant to subsections (b)(1) and (c) of section 105 of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998.

When said bill was considered and read twice.

Pursuant to House Resolution 174, the following amendment printed in the Congressional Record and numbered 1 pursuant to clause 6 of rule XXIII was considered as adopted:

In section 1002, in the amendment made to section 16(h)(1)(B) of the Food Stamp Act of 1977, amend clause (ii) to read as follows:

"(ii) not less than 80 percent of the funds provided in this subparagraph shall be used by a State agency for employment and training programs under section 6(d)(4), other than job search or job search training programs, for food stamp recipients not excepted by section 6(o)(3).

Strike subtitle D of title III and insert the following:

Subtitle D—Communications

SEC. 3301. SPECTRUM AUCTIONS.

(a) EXTENSION AND EXPANSION OF AUCTION AUTHORITY.—

(1) AMENDMENTS.—Section 309(j) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 309(j)) is amended—

(A) by striking paragraphs (1) and (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(1) GENERAL AUTHORITY.—If, consistent with the obligations described in paragraph (6)(E), mutually exclusive applications are accepted for any initial license or construction permit which will involve an exclusive use of the electromagnetic spectrum, then the Commission shall grant such license or permit to a qualified applicant through a system of competitive bidding that meets the requirements of this subsection.

"(2) EXEMPTIONS.—The competitive bidding authority granted by this subsection shall not apply to licenses or construction permits issued by the Commission—

"(A) that, as the result of the Commission carrying out the obligations described in paragraph (6)(E), are not mutually exclusive; "(B) for public safety radio services, including private internal radio services used by non-Government entities, that—
